Art Unit: 1724

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Each of the rejections applied against the pending claims in the Final Office action have been withdrawn in view of the arguments and clarifying statements made in the Appeal Brief filed March 29, 1999.

Specifically, parent application 08/742,819, which has been unavailable to the Examiner during the prosecution of the instant application, has become available due to the issuance of U.S. Patent No. 5,895,608 therefrom. Upon review of the patented claims therein, it is clear that they are indeed patentably distinct from claims 35-37 pending in this application. Therefore, 37 CFR 1.130, which applies only when the inventions defined by an application and a patent are not identical, but are not patentably distinct, does not apply to the instant application. As such the pending rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) is moot and has been withdrawn.

With respect to the rejection of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being "on sale", the crucial issue therein lies with the effective filing date accorded the instant invention. Previously, the Examiner has held that the instant application had only the right to the actual filing date of this application, rather than that of the parent application, since this application has named a different inventive entity. However, in the Appeal Brief, it has been made clear that the additional inventor, Leon Fan, named in this application, was indeed an inventor of that which was disclosed, but unclaimed in the parent application, the unclaimed material in the parent application being that which is recited by the claims in this application. Therefore, in view of the clarifying statements made in the Appeal Brief as to the inventorship of the claims in the parent application and this application, it is clear that the instant application is entitled to the filing date of parent application 08/742,819.

Since the only remaining rejections have been rendered moot in view of the arguments and clarifying statements as set forth in the Appeal Brief filed March 29, 1999, claim 35-37, the only pending claims in this application are hereby allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

2. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Scott Bushey whose telephone number is (703) 308-3581.
